CPPC Swap Meet organizing comes down to the wire

By Robin Will

Portland Swap Meet happens at the Expo Center on April 10-11-12, so the March 24 membership meeting is the last chance to sign up for a work shift in CPPC's Swap Meet booth.

The two-hour "work" shifts consist of equal parts selling and schmoozing – we usually recruit a few new members at the event. Many people stop by the booth just to reminisce about Plymouths that they once owned, or that they remember from childhood. And for the past couple of years, for the good of the hobby, we have been offering one-time-only newsletter ads to folks who either (1) are searching for specific items, or (2) who have Plymouths or parts for sale.

Many people actually buy stuff, and the Swap Meet is still CPPC's second-largest annual fundraiser.

This year we're in the interesting situation of having more merchandise than we know what to do with.

After several years of dwindling donations and increasing fees for space rentals, last year the Swap Meet Committee decided to downsize a bit. We thought we would reserve 5 indoor spaces, thinking we would use one for a membership booth, and rent one space to Mike Bade for his photo business, which historically gets us a lot of attention, and fill the other three spaces with merchandise.

We ended up with four booths inside, and one sales space outside.

As luck would have it, CPPC received a flood of donations in recent months – some really good stuff! – and we're trying to figure out how to manage it.

We're talking about displaying photos of the bigger, heavier or more specialized items, rather than dragging really big things to the Swap Meet. This raises issues of display strategies and booth space, and the committee will be figuring this out in the near future.

We're also discussing listing Swap Meet merchandise on the club's website, if it turns out to be a useful strategy. And as always, we're certain the Tech Committee members will be selling items on craigslist all year long.

No matter how good things look, we're accepting donations right up to the day of the Meet. Donations or consigned items may be brought to the March membership meeting, or dropped off at the Swap Meet work session at Gary Rusher's place on April 4, when the trailer gets loaded, or delivered to the club's booth at the Swap Meet on set-up day, Thursday April 9!

Gary Rusher (503-939-9320) or Chuck Willis (503-891-5069) can still arrange to pick up donated items if necessary.

Please buy Jeanette's jacket!

This donated 3XL CPPC club jacket pretty much dwarfs Jeanette Dimick. She's certain somebody in the club needs it, and she'd like to have some cash to spend on socks and toiletries for the homeless ministry she supports. Make her an offer she can't refuse – do a good deed, get a jacket!

The club was supposed to get 5 spaces and Mike Bade was to purchase one for his photography, but as of now we only have 4 spaces. We did get an outside space for larger items. Chuck Willis has donated his covered trailer to move all the "stuff" to the Swap Meet.

April 9 is set-up day at the Swap Meet. April 4, is the day to meet at Gary Rusher's house to price each of the car parts to sell. We still have many spots to fill for the booth at the Swap Meet. If you would like to help out, please contact Gary Rusher.

Tech Committee: At the last tech meeting, they took out the engine in Gary Rusher's 1930 Plymouth Coupe. This was supposed to be a simple job, but a stud broke off. The next meeting will be at Gary's at 9:00 am February 26.

Hot-dogust Day Cruise In Meeting: Come one, come all! Every third Tuesday of the month there will be a lunch meeting at the Wilsonville Denny's to talk about the Cruise In. All members welcome. We have flyers for the event and they are ready for distribution if you are planning to attend a car show.

Mike Bade has sponsor letters printed for people to take to get raffle prizes or sponsors. Please let businesses know they will be mentioned on a leaflet that will go in each goody bag and also on large poster at the Cruise In. Let's all help Joanne this year in collecting raffle prizes and donations. Bill Call said he would commit to get 10 sponsors this year!

Website/Newletter: Robin Will said that 7 people contributed to the newsletter in January.

The website is already promoting the August Cruise In. He reported there were 841 hits in February so far and the visitors seem to like the members cars and tech committee pages the best.

New Business: The President of the POC wrote a letter in the bulletin about judging of cars at National Meets. He was asking for feedback from the different regions in regards to modified cars being judged at national meets. CPPC's membership voted at the Feb. 24 meeting all in favor of inclusion except for 2 members.

Board Report: Mike Bade reminded members to take flyers to car shows.

Other: Jeanette Dimick thanked members for their donations of clothing. She has a CPPC jacket for sale, and will use proceeds to purchase items for the homeless. Library Books: John and Peggy Madden gave Philis VanCoelen about 50 old car books. Philis brought them to the club and will have a check out system so members can check out these rare finds and enjoy them.

Car Quiz: Winners: Randy Ealy, Gerry Petersen, and Bruce Kerslake.

Raffle: Melissa Rosenak, Lloyd Schulz and Dolores Call.

50/50: Larry Catt won the $47.50 share of the $95.00 50/50 collection.

The meeting adjourned at 8:50 pm.

Out & About, Plymouths at large

Thanks to D.J. Freeman, who sent this picture. He says, "On the way back from the tour I saw this on a car lot in Albany. It is a 1949 four door, no interior and I couldn't tell if the pain was well oxidized or it was gray primer. They only want $5999 for it." D.J. says the business is called Lima Family Auto Sales, and they have a '46'48 Plymouth on their business sign.

Rusher update: simple engine operation goes into extra innings

Here's another chapter in the yet-to-be-written book on the vibration problem in Gary Rusher's 1930 Plymouth U coupe.

The subtitle of this chapter is "You're very lucky to be in a club that has a Technical Committee."

Gary discovered a bad new motor mount during his long struggle with the coupe's vibration problem, and figured as long as he was removing the engine, he would send it out and have it balanced.

He complicated the simple process by snapping off a stud during the disassembly process, turning a running engine into a much longer-term project.

What are odds that another 1930 Plymouth engine would be readily at hand, to potentially make matters easier? Well, Mike Bade rebuilt the engine in his '30U coupe, drove it very little, parked the coupe for 40 years, and then put a V6 in it, so, long story short, there's a spare 4-cylinder Plymouth engine to play with.

In a roundabout way, these opportunities sent at least a couple of Tech Committee members back to the books regarding babbit, a soft metal which, because of its crystalline structure, behaves like a much harder substance when it is used for bearings, and which is poured into place.

So suddenly, there's a lot of education to be had on the subject of early 4-cylinder Plymouths.

Current plans call for documenting this education as thoroughly as possible with photos and text, and sharing it on the Tech Committee's page on CP-PC's website, so that other owners of pre-1933 Plymouths might profit from what is learned, or chime in to share their own experiences.

An opportunity of sorts ...

D.J. Freeman just shared this ad from the mid-valley (Corvallis) Craigslist on March 18:

"1936 ply4door car - $500 (sweet home ore,) make a good rat rod,or yard oramant."

SMS Auto Fabrics tour dazzles with variety

On March 7, 2015, ten CPPC members joined a joint tour to SMS Auto Fabrics, in Canby, Oregon, with the Studebaker Drivers Club and Pacific Wonderland WPC Club.

SMS claims to be the largest supplier of auto interior products in the world, and it would be difficult to argue with them. They have an enormous inventory of OEM fabrics, and can offer reproductions of what's not on hand, for every American car from 1930-2000. Aside from seat materials and seat welt, they offer door panels (or door panel skins, for the do-it-yourselfer), carpet, windlace, trunk liners, headliners, and most likely some things that ordinary restorers haven't figured out names for.

They are almost legendary in the restoration hobby for having obscure stuff, or being able to reproduce it, as long as your timeline and budget hold out. CPPC members reported having a great time.

D.J. Freeman took these pictures inside SMS Auto Fabrics. He was obviously attracted to the vinyl door panels and other interior trim pieces, and impressed by the huge warehouse with bolts of fabric stacked out of sight to the rafters. The company's website is: smsautofabrics.com

CPPC tours historic WWII PT Boat on Swan Island

March 12 was a sunny day – a good day to drive down to the river and visit a PT Boat.

Bob and Jeanette Dimick hosted this event, with members gathering at North Portland’s Overlook Restaurant before heading to Swan Island.

PT stands for Patrol Torpedo, a class of boat designed to strike at larger warships with torpedoes, protected mostly by their high speed and small size. PT 658 was built late in World War II, and apparently didn’t see combat.

A group of volunteers formed the organization Save the PT Boat, Inc., and restored PT 658 to original condition beginning in 1995. It is the only US Navy PT Boat that is fully operational today.

After inspecting every inch of the boat, CPPC members returned to the Overlook Restaurant for lunch, and then returned to the island to visit Mike Slama’s warehouse and collection of gas pumps.

Above: beautiful weather greeted the CPPC group as they toured the only remaining operational World War II PT boat on Swan Island. Below: visitors may inspect every inch of the craft, inside and out. That Philis at the helm! Photos courtesy of the Benfields.

Please keep Yvonne Westphal updated about club members who need cards, letters, or phone calls. That's ytomblyson@aol.com, or 360-334-6037.

Les Conner will be having hip replacement surgery on March 31 at the Salmon Creek Legacy Hospital. He is looking forward to getting his leg fixed so he can walk again and get out and do things. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Beth Pierce is feeling good and just returned from a two week trip. She said the surgeon gave a wonderful report and said things look great for now. She will go back in 6 more months for the next tests. She is starting acupuncture for the neuropathy in her feet and hopes that will help.

Yvonne Westphal is recovering well from the hip replacement in February. She is also having cataract surgery this month.

I have not received any calls or emails about breakdowns or other health problems, so I hope you are all doing well.

Please remember the cards and phone calls to those in need.

NUTS & BOLTS: Board meeting highlights

From minutes taken by Joanne Dixon

The Board of Directors of Cascade Pacific Plymouth® Club met March 10, 2015 at approximately 12:30 p.m. at Bill's Place, 16111 SE 106th Ave, Clackamas, OR 97015.

Present at the meeting were the following Board Members: Mike Bade, Bob Westphal, Robin Will, Joanne Dixon, and Dolores Call. Guests included Gary Rusher, Jerry Dixon, and Joe Pongratz. Joanne Dixon recorded the minutes.

The meeting was called to order by Mike Bade.

Treasurer's Report: Dolores Call's report showed us in the black and slightly ahead of where we were at this time last year. Ask any board member for details. She also reported that sixteen members have not yet paid their 2015 dues.

Joanne Dixon suggested that the Club sponsor an award at the Lions Club Independence Cruise-in this year, and the Board voted and approved. Joanne also suggested that the Club sponsor an award at the Hot Dog-ust Cruise-in, if there is a shortage of sponsors, and that was also approved by the Board.

- Old Business: Mike Bade is working on the 2015 roster and will publish after the swap meet with any new members who join. The Honorary Members list will be reviewed and updated for inclusion in the roster. Rosters will be available at the April membership meeting.

The Portland Roadster Show March 20th was not well supported for this year, but it was agreed we should focus on a substantial Club group display at the 2016 event.

Gary Rusher reviewed the swap meet prep schedule (story, page 1). Gary will pass the swap meet duty sheet again at the March membership meeting.

April 18th is the joint Brew Pub Tour with the Studebaker Club. April 25th is the Oregon Railroad tour, hosted by the Studebaker Club.

May 2nd is the Wooden Shoe Tulip Festival. We still need a Host, Jerry will try to recruit a host prior to the March Membership Meeting. May 9th is Portland Transmission and Papa's Toys, at this time a non-hosted event. Jerry will review at the March membership meeting.

May 16th is the Armed Forces Day Parade of Bands hosted by the Dixons.

- Member Care: Yvonne Westphal is doing well after hip replacement. Don Hufschmid continues to do well.

- Tech Committee: Gary Rusher updated the progress on the four cylinder rebuild. Robin Will suggested we document the elements of this build for the website tech section, and perhaps create another high-hit area on our website.

- Membership Committee: Robin will order 100 new membership packets before the Swap Meet.

- New Business: Gary Rusher will have swap meet duty signup sheets at one more membership meeting. The possibility of advertising all of the For Sale items from the website on poster boards at the swap meet was discussed. Robin will review the board fabrication options. It was further discussed adding large club owned parts to that process rather than transporting all the large items. It was further suggested that we could offer consignment parts and vehicles with this process also. Mike Bade brought up the possibility of CPPC doing another POC National event in the future. Board response was positive, and it will be kept on the agenda for 2016 or 2017.

The meeting adjourned at 2:16 p.m.
