Like a roller-coaster, Old Car Season starts in earnest

During the soggy winter months, car people in Oregon can be like bored kids, wondering what there is to do.

That was last month. March started out with plenty to do, and accelerated like a roller-coaster.

Multiple car clubs descended on Bill's Place on March 5, as Bill and Dolores Call hosted a garage tour. CPPC members were joined by the Studebaker Club, WPC Pacific Wonderland chapter, and possibly some American Motors folks, for a look at the cars – and everything else – at Bill's Place.

A March 12 tour to Aurora Colony Historical Society turned out well in spite of March weather. The Spinners Guild was showing off their spinning wheels, looms, and wool-bearing animals at the museum, and later the group toured a pioneer farm outside of town.

By the time this newsletter lands in mailboxes, it will be time to get out to the Portland Roadster Show. That's March 18-20. CPPC will have six Plymouths on exhibit – cars representing each decade from the Twenties through the Fifties. Brad Groff campaigned to make this happen, and it will be great exposure for our club.

Tom Fox is most likely getting a hip replacement as this is being written, so a couple of Tech Committee folks are headed for Roseburg to trailer his '59 Golden Fury up to the show. And while they're in Roseburg, they'll take a look at a car and some parts that are possible candidates for the Swap Meet.

And speaking of Portland Swap Meet, that happens April 1-2-3, with set-up on March 31.

There's still time for CPPC members to donate (or consign) merchandise for the Swap Meet. There's still time to sign up to work a shift or two, to get a good look at the nuts-and-bolts side of the old car hobby. And the Tech Committee would be happy if members joined them at Rushers' place on March 26 at 9:00AM to sort and price items, and load the trailer.

Members with donations for the Swap Meet should contact Chuck Willis or Gary Rusher if you need things picked up; otherwise bring your stuff to the March 22 meeting.

Hot Dog-ust Day Committee makes steady progress

It seems like a long time until August 20, but it's not – and our committee of "professionals" is working hard so they'll be ready.

CPPC gets constant praise for the events we put on. "Friendly and welcoming" is usually close to the top of the list, followed by, "well-organized." Folks remember forever if the hosts don't seem glad to see them, or if they are clueless about their own event. Hard work allows us to avoid those problems.

We were glad to learn that the cross-country team will be with us again this year. They added value to our event last year, cooking and serving hot dogs, and also running – literally – to help park cars. They had a good time and we're delighted to have them back. An increased donation to the cross-country team was already in our budget.

CPPC is upping the game this year by offering online registration: it's possible to visit CascadePacificPlymouth.org, register your car, specify your t-shirt size, and pay electronically. There's a $5 discount if this happens before August 12. The price goes to $25 after that.

Flyers for the event are already printed, and are being distributed. We wised up a little, and printed the registration form on the back of the flyers, hoping to make the process easier.

Sponsor letters are also ready. It's a good time to think about getting donations for trophies and goodie bags from the people we all do business with. Strong donations helped us finish well over budget last year, adding to what the club took home and substantially boosting what we were able to give to Clackamas Community College.

Pay your dues online!

As of the March 8 board meeting, there were still 46 members with unpaid dues. It's easier to pay this year – there's a PayPal link on the front page of CascadePacificPlymouth.org that gets the funds to CPPC and saves the cost of a stamp and the effort of writing a check!

Meeting highlights from February

Members of Cascade Pacific Plymouth Club met on February 23, 2016 at Clackamas Community Club, 15711 SE 90th Ave., Clackamas, Oregon. Thirty-five people were in attendance. Robin Will took the minutes.

The meeting was called to order at 7:05 by president Randy Ealy.

Don Hufschmid led the membership in the flag salute.

Randy thanked Donna and Mike Bade for bringing refreshments.

Guests included:

Phil Lapin, who currently own a restored 1946 Willys, and is looking for a car (1938-1948) more suitable as a daily driver.

Roy Farmer, who brought his 1948 Plymouth Convertible to the meeting. The car has a Corvette drive train, and Roy says it is fast.

Gene Coakley, a WPC member from Seattle, is looking for a slate of volunteer drivers for the Mecum Auctions in Portland, June 17-18. Randy Ealy has Gene's contact information and can provide more details.

Minutes of the January 2016 membership meeting were approved as printed in the January newsletter.

Treasurer Dolores Call furnished a report which Randy presented. We don't publish our bank balance in the newsletter, but, as Randy commented, the treasury is looking good.

Randy announced that the required IRS nonprofit report had been filled out for 2016.

Concerned that the club's November potluck fell too close to Thanksgiving, Randy found that the clubhouse was available November 29, the Tuesday after Thanksgiving. Moved, seconded and passed that the club potluck be held on November 29, 2016.

Randy reported a new Club Roster will be produced after Portland Swap Meet, to incorporate potential new members signed up at the Swap Meet. The Board is currently phoning members for updated information, and a draft will be circulated at a membership meeting for updates.

Tech Committee: Work continues on the club's "new" 1942 Plymouth. Brakes are complete. Electrical work was done, and they found a new starter motor was required. A work session is scheduled at the Westphals' garage for Wednesday, February 24.

In that connection, Yvonne Westphal was asked to come forward to accept a $100 gift card as partial thanks for hosting Tech Committee meetings.

While she had the floor, Yvonne reported on Member Care. (Story, page 6) This was Yvonne's last Member Care report. Joanne Dixon is assuming Member Care responsibilities.

Swap Meet: Gary Rusher reminded members that the Swap Meet is April 1-2-3 this year. He passed a sign-up sheet for shifts at the meet. As in the past, consignments are okay: the club takes a percentage and passes the balance on to the consigning member.

Hot Dog-ust Day Cruise-In: Pam Ealy reported. Meetings of the cruise-in committee are held at the Wilsonville Library, 10AM-noon, and club members are welcome to attend. Our scholarship help is still needed at Clackamas Community College: the new "free" community college tuition applies to graduating high school seniors only, not the adult students who make up most of the CCC student body.

Joanne Dixon announced that donation letters are now available, and urged club members to seek out donations for raffle items and 100 goodie bags. Benfields have again volunteered to stuff and deliver goodie bags to the event.

Mayflowers: Mindy Benfield announced the Monday, March 14 tour of

The Steering Column, A Message from the President

Time marches on. Did you remember to change your clocks? We now have more daylight to accomplish those honey-dos, yuck! I can escape to my man cave but Pam seems to always find me and my excuses are running thin.

We have had a great variety of club-sponsored events so far and lots of members taking advantage of these CPPC outings. Our Bill's Place tour had over 40 in attendance! Several of us enjoyed the Aurora Colony Museum, picnic lunch and tour of the Stauffer-Will Farm last weekend. Thanks again to the Mayflowers and Jerry Dixon for the schedule of events.

Our swap meet fundraiser is just around the corner. It's the time of year to do a little spring cleaning out in the Activities: Jerry Dixon reported. Fifteen members attended the demonstration at Sidedraught City on January 30, and some of them got hands-on experience with clay bar work. Visits to Sidedraught City will be repeated occasionally, since different members seem to attend each time.

Robin Will hosts a tour to the Aurora Colony Historical Society Museum on March 12. (Story, page 5)

Portland Roadster Show, March 18-20. Six members have registered their cars for a CPPC booth. Members are encouraged to attend to help staff the booth and promote our club.

Randy Ealy called out the names of club members with March birthdays and wished them well.

Newsletter/website: Robin reported that 11 people had submitted articles or photos for the February newsletter. The club's website is getting about 600 hits per month. There were 53 downloads of Gary Rusher's headlight lens worksheet.

Pam has put a committee chair list together for our Hot Dog-Ust Car Show. Please look over the list and give the chairperson a call to see what you can do to help make our event successful.

Tour at Bill's Place, March 5, 2016 – visitors tend to find the space overwhelming, between the cars, the murals, and the other items on display. Three car clubs joined the tour; about 40 people attended.

Rusher shows more profit from last Swap Meet, gives some shipping advice

Gary Rusher recently sold a set of 6-hole wire wheels, for 1930 Plymouth only, which were donated last year. After shipping, the club will realize a profit of about $450 on the sale.

Gary says he learned that Fastenal handles shipping along with their other services, and recommends Fastenal.com as a resource for anyone with pallet-sized merchandise to ship.

Don Hufschmid reminds CPPC members that he is available to help with DMV paperwork. Give him a call if you have a question about your car's documentation.

Bill says his collection isn't going anywhere

Bill and Dolores Call extend their thanks to everyone who visited Bill's Place on the March 5 garage tour.

However, in response to numerous questions, Bill wants to make one thing clear: he's not selling off "all" of his cars. Hey, he's only 90, and he plans to enjoy his cars for a long time yet.

To make some space, five cars were put up for sale recently, and three of them have sold.

One that's still for sale is this '88 Dodge Police Interceptor, the last year of the rear-wheel-drive police specials from MOPAR.

Radar, police radio and CB, though obsolete, are all in working order, and so are the lights and siren.

As a K-9 car, this vehicle appears to have been gently used, and it is just back from a general freshening and AT service at Mahjor-Murray.

Dolores is reluctant to sell the stuffed dog that sits in the back seat, so that part may require negotiation.

Call Bill if you need your very own police car.

On Friday, April 15th 2016, the Mayflowers will tour the Historic Belmont Firehouse. It is located at 900 SE 35th Avenue (at Belmont), Portland OR 97214. Our tour is scheduled to start at 10:00 AM and will take about an hour. After the tour we will be having lunch at a local restaurant, still to be determined. A sign up sheet will be passed around at the CPPC general meeting on March 22nd. Please note that the tour date is different from the one that was originally given. If you have any questions or want to sign up and won't be at the meeting email or call Mindy Benfield. Her contact information is in the roster.

Below: The Ealy grandsons, Max, left, and Jake, right, with Bill Call in the middle. He's probably trying to talk them into joining the Plymouth Club.

On Monday March 14th, the Mayflowers toured the new library at the visitors center at Bonneville Power Administration. BPA's archived showed them "mechanical contraptions" from the 1930's and 1940's, plus classic vehicles and museum film footage.
